Last week's bulletin asked that we mark our calendar for a parish mission in Spanish from Monday to Wednesday, February 26, 27, 28 and in English from Monday to Wednesday, March 5, 6, 7. From 7:00-9:00 pm. A number of people have asked me "what is a mission"? Over the years it was quite customary for parishes to have a mission, especially during Lent. A mission is somewhat like an extended retreat. It is a great opportunity for us to come apart for a spiritual recharge. Lent calls us to sacrifice, to spend more time in prayer, and to tend to the needs of the poor. We all have our own personal needs that we wish to bring before the Lord in prayer and certainly our world is in great need for our prayer. Yes, it is a sacrifice to arrange one's busy schedule of so many duties and responsibilities in order to participate in the parish mission, but I am sure you will feel rejuvenated in your faith after making this sacrifice and joining many others, all desirous to intensify their relationship with the Lord. In order to help families with children, I will be available each evening to take the youngsters apart and give them a little mini-mission.

God bless you!

El boletín de la semana pasada solicitó que marquemos nuestro calendario para una misión parroquial en español de lunes a miércoles, 26, 27, y 28 de febrero, y en inglés de lunes a miércoles, 5, 6, y 7 de marzo de las 7:00-9:00 pm. Varias personas me han preguntado "qué es una misión"? Con los años, era bastante habitual que las parroquias tuvieran una misión, especialmente durante la Cuaresma. Una misión es algo así como un retiro prolongado. Es una gran oportunidad para que nos separemos por una carga espiritual. La Cuaresma nos llama a sacrificarnos, a dedicar más tiempo a la oración y a atender las necesidades de los pobres. Todos tenemos nuestras propias necesidades personales que deseamos traer al Señor en oración y ciertamente nuestro mundo está en gran necesidad de nuestra oración. Sí, es un sacrificio organizar el apretado calendario de tantos deberes y responsabilidades para participar en la misión de la parroquia. Estoy seguro de que se sentirá rejuvenecido en su fe después de hacer este sacrificio y unirse a muchos otros, todos deseosos de intensificar su relación con el Señor. Para ayudar a las familias con niños, estaré disponible cada noche para llevar a los niños/jóvenes a su pequeña mini-misión.

¡Dios te bendiga!

Saint Nicholas of Tolentine Academy

St. Nicholas of Tolentine Catholic Academy was honored to host an assembly for Master Sergeant Felipe Caamano, the father of two of our students. Last week we reported that he paid his children a surprise visit upon his return from Afghanistan. During the assembly he thanked all the students for their support and the 16 boxes of supplies that were sent to him and his troops.

MSG. Caamano also presented the school with a plaque and flag which is on display in the lobby of the church which reads:

"These Stars and Stripes were proudly flown for Saint Nicholas of Tolentine Catholic Academy. Let it be known that this flag of the United States of America was flown above the headquarters of the Army Field Battalion, Bagram, Afghanistan, bearing witness to the sacrifices of many in support of Operation Freedom's Sentinel while protecting the freedom of the United States of America. (25th December 2017)."
